The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, JANUARY 24TH, 1912.

The House of Representatives at Washington a month ago adopted, by 300 yeas to 1, a resolution directing the immediate abrogation of the Treaty of 1832 between the United States and Russia on account of Russia's discrimination against the passports issued to American Jews. The statement has been published in America that the British Jewish associations, following this lead, have initiated a movement to secure the abrogation of the treaty between Russia and Great Britain, under which the Czar's Government is able to exclude British Jews from that country. We have seen nothing in the London papers to corroborate this statement, but if America has a grievance in this respect it is certainly one in which all other countries share. A leading article from the St. Petersburg Rossiya is quoted as saying that Russia cannot be expected to change her laws in deference either to demonstrations by groups of American Jews or as the result of friendly representations on the part of the United States Government. This was contrasted in the American Press with that passage of the President's Message to Congress on foreign affairs in which a speedy settlement of the controversy was fore shadowed in consequence of conversations in St. Petersburg between the American Ambassador and the Foreign Office. The Times correspondent at Washington, referring to this, says Russia is wrong when it talks of "demonstrations by groups of American Jews. The affair has gone far beyond that. American sentimentalism has been aroused irrespective of race, and, what is even more important, American foreign relations are once more being made a pawn in party politics." It must have occurred to most people who have read the brief telegrams on the subject to ask how this outburst of virtuous indignation on the part of the American public against Russia's action squares with her own exclusion laws against Asiatics. We observe that this aspect of the question was not lost sight of in America. Mr. Kent, the Representative of the State of California, made the assertion that the abrogation of the Treaty of 1832 with Russia is inconsistent in that to deny to Russia the right to exclude Jews is not harmonious with the American policy of keeping out certain Chinese and Japanese. A San Francisco paper answered this assertion by saying that the analogy was mistaken, because the exclusion of Oriental labourers from the United States was based not on racial or religious but on economic grounds. "This country," said the journal, "takes no exception to the entrance of Oriental merchants; indeed large numbers of both Chinese and Japanese tradesmen have been entertained by American commercial bodies in recent years—nor are students or travellers for pleasure in any way interfered with in their goings and comings in the United States." Now this is pretty much the case with Russia and the Jews. The problem there appears to be economic rather than religious. "Practically all serious foreign Jewish business men," we read, "have unhindered access to Russia, especially Americans." In a brief review of the position the Times correspondent at St. Petersburg explains that Russia has over 7,000,000 Jews, most of whom reside within the "Pale" (which lies mainly within her south-western region) and are not allowed to travel or reside in other parts of the Empire. Russia considers it would be dangerous for the national and material well-being of her 100,000,000 uncultured peasants if the Jews were permitted to settle throughout the country. People who are unacquainted with the problem may be disposed to challenge these conclusions, remarks the correspondent, "but they blink the uncomfortable fact that the United States and Great Britain have not scrupled, in self-defence, to restrict the immigration of Russian Jews." Russians, he goes on to say, realize that the unhappy lot of their Jewish fellow-subjects is prejudicial to all concerned. They know that the Jews suffer; they also know that the resultant ill-will of Jewish financial interests in the great money markets of the world has cost the Treasury hundreds of millions of roubles, and that much of the Russophobia feeling prevailing abroad is due to the same cause. But they regard all this as a lesser evil; the greater would, they believe, be the removal of Jewish restrictions. "And Russia cannot be expected to treat foreign or American Jews more liberally than her own Jewish subjects." This, however, does not quite answer the argument. The United States could not well object to Russia taking only such restrictive measures against American Jews as she herself takes against the immigration of Russian Jews. The grievance purports to be that Russia goes far beyond that in her treatment of Jews reaching her shores from America; and that the grievance is substantial is indicated by the fact that only one member in a Congress of over 300 was found to oppose the abrogation of the Treaty. Now the question for consideration is: What will America do when the notice expires next year? Repatriation on the part of the United States, it is declared, can only take the form of further restrictions against Russian immigrants, who are chiefly Jews, and that, as the Times St. Petersburg correspondent says, is a paradoxical disavowal of the controversy.

A very large quantity of paper, valued at about $43 was found by a Chinese detective in Aberdeen Street, yesterday.

A new Magazine is being issued in connection with Shanghai and Shanghai life called the Harlequin and is causing an unusual amount of interest.

At the Magistracy yesterday, a man named Tung Fat was convicted of unlawfully applying the trade mark "B.A.T." to certain brands of cigarettes. He was fined $30 or six weeks' imprisonment.

Mr. Irving had before him yesterday a man named Charles Kirkpatrick, who was charged with assaulting an Indian policeman at No. 13, Connaught Road West. The evidence went to show that defendant asked the constable to go to a garage and bring a man to repair the motor car in which he was driving. The Indian refused and defendant kicked him. A fine of $10 was imposed.

At the Magistracy yesterday Mr. Irving fined a man $25, in default a month's imprisonment for keeping an eating house at No. 7, Wa Lane without a licence.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Landale and their children were booked to leave London on January 12th, for Shanghai by the P. & O. s.s. Marmora.

The 25th Punjab, from India, will arrive at Hongkong by the R.I.M.S. Hardinge on 7th February, and the 26th Punjab by the R.I.M.S. Duvern on 13th February.

Ten men who were charged with gambling at 256, Queen's Road Central were each fined $3 yesterday. The alternative was seven days' imprisonment.

It would seem that the banknote confidence trick is not yet generally known, as an old woman on Monday last, was relieved of about $50 by that means.

At the Magistracy yesterday a man was sentenced to three months' imprisonment and eight strokes of the "cat," for stealing a quantity of clothing valued at $34.50, at Yau-mat.

A trading junk yesterday brought in a further report of the case of piracy which occurred at Mirs Bay. It appears that the pirates on the commandeered launch were flying the rebel flag when they sighted the junk. When the pirates got aboard they told the master of the junk that he was trading unlawfully and that his cargo would be confiscated. They sailed the junk into a Chinese town named Sun Liu, dropped anchor and removed cargo valued at $5,000.

The Chinese trader at Singapore who brought action against Mr. Tigran Sarkis, of the Raffles Hotel, to recover the sum of $14,197.21, money paid by the plaintiff at the request of defendant in connection with the proper wedding and clearing of Sungei Mersing Rubber Estate, now known as the Anglo-Johore Rubber Company, won his case, judgment being given for the full amount claimed, with costs.

Lieutenant W. A. Egerton, who has just been appointed gunnery officer of the Minotaur, flagship of the China Squadron, has been in the service for nearly fifteen years, and he was specially promoted lieutenant in 1900 for services in South Africa. He served with the Naval Brigade under the command of Captain Prothero in the army of Lord Methuen and afterwards in Lord Roberts' troops in the fighting for the relief of Kimberley, and was engaged in the actions of Belmont, Graspan, Modder River, Paardeberg, and Driefontein (mentioned in despatches, specially promoted lieutenant from midshipman, Queen's medal with "Belmont," "Modder River," "Paardeberg," and "Driefontein" clasps).

Before Commander Beckwith, R.N., in the Marine Court yesterday, Charles H. Cross, master of the steamer Bessie Dollar charged twenty-four of the Chinese crew with having refused to obey his orders, between the 22nd September, 1911, and the 21st January, 1912. The master stated that on the 27th September, when the ship was lying at San Pedro, California, he gave an order to the crew to move the vessel along the line of docks. This order they refused to obey. Again, on the 9th October, at San Francisco, they refused to work, and on the 24th October, one of the defendants refused to work unless witness gave him $5. He tried to incite the other men to join him, but they refused. Witness gave him the money. Three of the men who were the ringleaders, were each sentenced to two months' imprisonment, and a sentence of twenty days was imposed on each of the other fifteen men.

REPUBLICAN BANKNOTES.

It was reported some time ago, says the N.C. Daily News, that an effort to raise money was made by the Republican party by an issue of banknotes to the value of $10,000,000. We now hear that notes to the value of only $300,000 have so far been issued, and that the issuing bank, which only acts as the agent of the Provisional Government, has reserve in silver to the tune of $200,000. Our contemporary gives the report for what it is worth, but says it is a fact that these banknotes are in circulation, and are pretty freely accepted among a large number of Chinese in Shanghai and the vicinity. Owing to a misconception there was a report that the foreign banks were accepting these notes in precisely the same manner as they do the notes of their own banks. As these notes are being circulated among Chinese it is but natural that some of them should find their way into the foreign banks. "What some of the foreign banks do now is just to undertake to collect on these notes for their clients."

TELEGRAMS. TELEGRAMS.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

FRANCE AND ITALY.

LONDON, January 23rd.

While the French newspapers to-day continue to insist upon the liberation of the Turks captured on board the steamer Manouba as the national honour is involved, they assure Italy that France thereafter will loyally investigate their true identity. They express the conviction that Franco-Italian friendship is strong enough to ensure the prompt settlement of what is simply a misunderstanding.

LATER.

No word has been published anywhere confirming the article which appeared in the Daily Chronicle yesterday to the effect that France contemplated a naval demonstration off the Italian coast.

Italy proposes that the seizures be submitted to arbitration at the Hague.

LATER.

Telegrams from Paris state that amid a scene of unprecedented enthusiasm, even the Socialists, applauding, M. Poincare made a statement that neither in international nor in civil law could France surrender the Turks on board the Manouba. Only after Italy had given them up could the necessary investigation be permitted. With this end in view he was confident that Italy would recognise the necessity for settling such incidents in conformity with justice, thus preventing their recurrence.

The reply of the Italian Government gave the assurance of a speedy solution in friendly conversations between the Governments, and if any differences remained they could be settled by arbitration.

It was explained that the French Charge d'Affaires at Rome was responsible for the surrender of the Turks to Italy. Regarding the "Carthage" he pointed out that Italy had committed an error to the detriment of French interests and concluded that the incidents were powerless to disturb the Franco-Italian relations based upon common memories of affinity of race and mutual interests.

ROYAL VISIT TO NEW YORK.

LONDON, January 23rd.

New York telegrams state that Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, with Princess Patricia, have arrived. They were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Whitlaw Reid.

The large crowds were controlled by police guards.

Fifty invitations have been issued for a dinner to-night to which Their Royal Highnesses will be entertained.

The Duke, Duchess, and the Princess Patricia drove in separate motors, so as to avoid the reporters.

LATER.

The Duke and Duchess of Connaught will pay a visit to President Taft at Washington on the 25th instant.

POLITICAL EXCITEMENT IN IRELAND.

LONDON, January 23rd.

Meetings of Liberals and Unionists are being held daily in Belfast to make preparations for their respective receptions to Mr. Winston Churchill on the occasion of his forthcoming visit.

The Lord Mayor has stated that personally he is opposed to the cancellation of the visit.

The police are making inquiries into the situation.

LATER.

Sir Edward Carson, speaking at Liverpool, said that the Government after a long series of provocations, had thrown down to Ulster Royalists a challenge, which had been taken up by the Unionists. The Council would have been false to their position if they had adopted any other policy in face of the Government's deliberative scheme to provoke disorder and to cover Ulster with contempt. The cost might be great and the suffering terrible, but they were determined to see the matter through.

LOS ANGELES AVIATOR KILLED.

LONDON, January 23rd.

A Los Angeles telegram states that Mr. Rutherford Page, a wealthy amateur aviator, fell from an aeroplane and was killed.

THE GERMAN ELECTIONS.

LONDON, January 23rd.

Reuter's correspondent at Berlin wires that the Socialists have captured the Catholic votes at Cologne.

Count von Bethmann-Holweg and other Ministers, by voting "Radical" saved the so-called Kaiser division in Berlin from the Socialists by eight votes.

ITALY AND TURKEY.

LONDON, January 23rd.

Telegrams from Rome state that the Italian forces have re-occupied Gargareth from which they withdrew in consequence of an attack by Turks, who were repulsed.

They found no traces of the enemy within a radius of five miles. This is regarded as confirming the seriousness of the Turkish losses. The enemy admit that over 150 were killed.

A Constantinople telegram states that the Italians have cut the cable between Suakin and Hodeidah.

RAILWAY DISASTER IN AMERICA.

FOUR RAILWAY MAGNATES KILLED.

LONDON, January 23rd.

Reuter's correspondent at Illinois telegraphs that an express on the Central Railway dashed at full speed into the rear of a passenger train at Centralia, Illinois, and smashed to atoms a private car in the rear of the latter containing Messrs. Harahan, Melcher, Pierce and Wright, railway magnates, who were all asleep and were killed. Twenty others were injured.

LADY LUGARD.

The following bulletin was issued at 10.30 a.m. yesterday:—

Her Excellency Lady Lugard has had a good night and feels much better.

The following bulletin, signed by Dr. Jordan, was issued at 7.30 last night:—

Her Excellency Lady Lugard is doing well.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH, KOWLOON.

The annual meeting of the seatholders and subscribers to St. Andrew's Church was held last night under the presidency of the Rev. H. O. Spink.

The balance sheet which showed a balance of $68.75 was approved.

Mr. B. L. Frost then raised the question of the trust deed which the Rev. Mr. Spink had declared was not worth the paper on which it was written. He said that that it was time that the trust deed should be made valid.

The Chairman said he did not think that the matter concerned the matter under discussion. It was capable of alterations, but in certain respects it was not canonical.

Mr. Frost said that any misunderstanding should be rectified at once.

The Chairman said that these alterations could not be made unless the necessary notice were given.

The suggested alterations were put to the meeting and agreed to.

The vestry was constituted as under: Messrs. T. Hunter, R. Packham, H. F. Campbell, Platt, Claxton, B. E. Fielder, and Douglas. Mr. Packham was elected people's warden, and Mr. Claxton was elected vicar's warden.

Mr. Drude proposed that the office of sidesman be abolished as it was unnecessary, but there was no seconder, and the motion fell to the ground.

The following were elected sidesman: Messrs. Drude, J. J. Robson, Fentiman, and Inglis.

Mr. C. N. M. Hamilton was appointed auditor.

In conclusion Mr. Claxton proposed a vote of thanks to the chaplain for his work during the year.

This concluded the proceedings.

THE A.D.C. ENTERTAINMENT.

Following is the programme for the Variety Entertainment on Saturday next:—Dr. and Mrs. Schofield, Duo; Mrs. Moulder, Song; Messrs. Carter and Donne, Dance; Mrs. Webb, Song; Capt. Addison, Musical Sketch; Miss Zeller, Dance; and Dr. and Mrs. Schofield, Miss Gordon and Mr. Donna, Quartette. By special request the Harlequinade will also be repeated.

This is a special effort on the part of the A.D.C. and may be regarded as an item in the entertainment of the delegates to the Medical Congress. It will be seen that the programme is much upon the lines of the highly successful entertainment recently given by the K.O.Y.L.I. and includes the famous Harlequinade, which in itself is well worth the price of admission. We trust the A.D.C. will be well supported on the occasion by the general public. The entertainment can be recommended as a sure cure for "the blues" engendered by the depressing weather inflicted upon us this week, and we may add the reminder that the funds of the A.D.C. are not in a too flourishing condition and could well do with the support.

LOCAL SPORT.

SUPREME COURT.

Tuesday, 23rd January.

IN ORIGINAL JURISDICTION.

BEFORE THE CHIEF JUSTICE (SIR FRANCIS PIGGOTT).

A WIDOW'S CLAIM.

Lo Leung Shi, a widow, residing at 75, Caine Road, Victoria, brought action against Lo Lim Yeuk, described as a gentleman, residing at 1, Wing Lok Street, to recover $38,728.10 being money, received by the defendant for the plaintiff on the security of a mortgage on Inland Lot 7, of which she owned one-fifth.

Mr. M. Slade, K.C., and Mr. Eldon Potter, instructed by Mr. R. F. C. Master, of Messrs. Johnson, Stokes & Master, appeared for the plaintiff, the defendant being represented by Hon. Mr. H. E. Pollock, K.C., instructed by Mr. D. V. Stevenson, of Messrs. Deacon, Looker & Deacon.

The statement of claim having been read by Mr. Potter,

Mr. Slade, in opening, said that the case was somewhat peculiar because all the material facts necessary for the plaintiff to prove were admitted and so far as he could see no defence was shown in the statement of claim, but it was possible that the ingenuity of his friend might twist some of the statements so as to operate in the way of a defence. Proceeding to state the facts, Counsel said that in the year 1904, Lo Chuk Chee brought a piece of property in the Colony for $230,000 and assigned it to his five sons in January, 1904. The property remained in the possession of the five sons until March of the following year, when one of the sons conveyed his share of one-fifth to the plaintiff, his mother, in consideration of $40,000. The property was held from that time until the present by the four sons and the plaintiff in common. The next step was that the plaintiff gave the eldest son power of attorney to collect the rents and to mortgage the property. The defendant mortgaged the property for $150,000, but this mortgage was paid off and a new mortgage executed for $142,000. It was admitted that no portion of this was paid to the plaintiff, who owned a fifth share of the property; and it was admitted that since the power of attorney had been given to the defendant no portion of the rents had been paid to the plaintiff, it being alleged by the defendant that this money had been used in the service of the mortgage. Plaintiff claimed to be put in the position that she had occupied on the day when the mortgage money was paid over. She was entitled to one-fifth of the proceeds, and as she had not had the use of the money she was under no obligation to pay interest on the money for the intervening time. There was no dispute as to figures in this case; it was only a question of right.

Mr. Pollock said that, as his friend had closed his case, if he could satisfy his Lordship without opening fresh facts that the documents proved his case for the defence, he would be entitled to judgment.

His Lordship—Clearly, as a general rule, Mr. Pollock said it would have to be proved that defendant received the money, on his own account. The property was assigned by Lo Chuk Chee to his five sons, and they distinctly raised the issue of the plaintiff's right to a share of the property notwithstanding that one of the sons had conveyed his fifth share to her. The plaintiff's title was disputed.

After argument, Mr. Pollock called defendant, who gave evidence and was being cross-examined by Mr. Slade when the Court rose.

REX v. CHOW KWONG HU & TONG SUI TONG.

A grave error appeared in our report of this case, which was heard before the Criminal Session on Monday. According to our report the prisoners were both found guilty on the first two counts and not guilty on the third and fourth counts. The verdict, however, was that the first prisoner only was found guilty on the first two counts on which he alone was charged; the second defendant was found not guilty on all charges and was discharged. Sentence was not passed against the first prisoner but he was remanded until Saturday next, when a date will be fixed for the hearing of the arguments upon a point raised by the defence that the evidence adduced by the Crown did not support the charge set out in the indictment.

We much regret the error and willingly make the correction.

DEATH OF MR. J. J. F. BANDINEL.

The death is announced of Mr. J. J. F. Bandinel, a very old resident of Newchwang, where he was greatly respected by all residents. He came to China in 1870, and was the head of the well-known firm of Messrs. Bandinel & Co. He was at one time Consul or Vice-Consul for Germany, Japan, U.S.A., America, Norway and Sweden, and the Netherlands. The N.C. Daily News says that for many years it might have been said with a fair amount of accuracy that there were two Consuls in Newchwang, one the Consul for Great Britain, and the other the Consul for the rest of the world. Mr. Bandinel received several decorations from the Governments he served so faithfully and for such a lengthy period. He leaves a widow and two daughters, who are at present in England, and two sons, one of whom is in the Russo-Asiatic Bank, and the other in the I. M. Customs.

INTIMATION

ELLAMS B. 19 ROTARY-DUPPLICATOR.

Has achieved a success unequalled by any other Rotary-Duplicator. This is due to simplicity of working and the excellence of fitting of the parts. It has caused a complete revolution in Duplicating, and the production of perfect copies by the Rotary-Machine is now a certainty.

From a well written original any boy can make thousands of copies on any paper, and each one will be perfect.

There is absolutely nothing to go out of order, and the apparatus is always ready for use. There is a mechanical device which allows the copy to be made in any position on the paper.

The pressure-roller is regulated by a simple lever, and the arrangement is so made that it is impossible for the operator to have difficulty with his work.

The printing cylinder is geared so that one turn of the handle makes a copy.

A most important advantage ELLAMS "B 19" possesses is that the ink never drips and runs all over the Duplicator as on other Machines.

The ink never dries on the rollers or pads, and copies can be made on any kind of paper. Moreover, this ink does not stain the hands in any way.

There is no peculiar or complicated fastening of the stencil-sheet to the Duplicator.

The ELLAMS "B 19" Duplicator is so absolutely simple that it requires no experience whatever to produce perfect copies from it—there is no calculating or unscrewing of parts.

The Machine is fitted with an automatic Copy-counter recording instantly the total number of copies taken.

We stock three different kinds of this Duplicator:

1. For duplicating typewritten documents " " " Price $100.

2. For duplicating both type and handwritten documents " " " $115.

3. For duplicating both type and handwritten documents with self-feeding attachment " " " $150.

Complete with all supplies ready for immediate use.

Considering the excellent workmanship of the apparatus, the prices are very reasonable and compare most favorably with any Duplicator on the market.

We guarantee that the Machines will give complete satisfaction.
